PRESIDENT'S CORNER

The end of summer is right around the corner, and I hope you're starting to think snow! We've got a great, varied lineup of trips planned to some of the most fabulous ski/board destinations in the US, and space is available on most of these at this time. Your next and best opportunity to sign up for these trips will be at our first membership meeting of the year, Tuesday, September 6. Come talk to our trip leaders, find out which trips your SSC friends have signed up for, and take steps to join them! If you're thinking about signing up for a western trip, don't delay, as many of our trip leaders will have to return unsold air seats/hotel rooms in late September or early October. We've also published in this issue the prices for our weekend and day trips – as you can see there's plenty to tempt you outdoors for some fun this coming winter!

SSC's social calendar remains full even as the seasons are changing: membership meetings, happy hours, Mark's annual bike ride through historic Gettysburg, howling at the moon (with Terri and the wolves), our annual migration to the eastern shore (Anna's Cape May trip), and parties, parties, parties! Truly something for everyone!

I hope you have had an enjoyable summer and that you're looking forward, as am I, to cooler days and crisp nights, harbinger of that next and best season, winter!

Live to ski another day!
